Pro-abortion letter
matches unrelated issues

To the editor:

This is in response to Peggy Loonan with "Life and Liberty for Women," who wrote about the Catholic Church being hypocritical regarding abortion.

I'm not sure which tree you fell from Ms. Loonan but the last time I checked, the problems in the Catholic Church and the argument for abortion have nothing to do with each other. I have seen letters that you've submitted to other Northern Colorado newspapers in the past and the thread is always the same: anti-male, anti-child and anti-family.

Please Ms. Loonan, the energy you put into being "pro-abortion at any cost" would be better spent learning a new hobby. Perhaps basket weaving? And on a last note, does your organization "Life and Liberty for Women" include baby women?
